ALL - STATE CONDUCTORS

Allan Mc Murray
Band

Allan McMurray is professor of conducting, director of bands and conductor of the Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Band at the University of Colorado. He has previously served on the faculties of the University of Michigan, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, as well as the Interlochen Arts Academy.

Under his leadership the bands at the University of Colorado have performed at major conferences and conventions, including the First International Conference for Symphonic Bands in Manchester, England, the All-Japan Band Conference in Nemo Nu Sato, Japan and the CBDNA convention in Boulder Colorado.

Considered an authority on conducting pedagogy and wind repertoire, Professor McMurray has been a guest conductor, lecturer and clinician in 35 states and 10 countries. He is the host for the CBDNA National Conducting Symposium in Boulder, and has recently begun a conductors' intern program during the summer at Arrowbear Music Camp in California.

Professor McMurray holds an undergraduate degree in music education from California State University at Long Beach, and graduate degrees in trumpet performance and conducting from the University of Wisconsin.

David Stocker has been professor of choral music at Arizona State University in Tempe since 1978. He conducts various choral ensembles, teaches conducting and choral methods, and supervises student teachers in the choral music education program. He also serves as minister of music at Valley Presbyterian Church in Scottsdale, Arizona.

He has been active across the country as a guest conductor and adjudicator at all-state music festivals and clinics. Foreign assignments have included clinics and guest conducting in London and Saudi Arabia, and active roles in international seminars in Moscow, Bucharest, Warsaw, and Krakow. He regularly contributes original compositions to the school and church choir repertoire, frequently by commission.

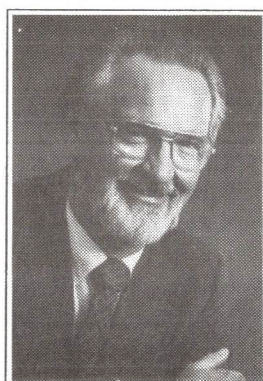

Dr. Stocker's teaching experience includes elementary and high school assignments, and appointments at Concordia College in Edmonton, the University of Alberta, and the University of North Dakota. His Ph.D. degree is from Northwestern University.

Dale Kempter, All-State Orchestra Conductor, is curriculum supervisor of fine arts for the Albuquerque Public Schools, and conductor of the acclaimed Albuquerque Youth Symphony. Under his leadership, the Youth Symphony has performed in Europe,

In 1975 Larry authored and instituted what has become the "Great Expectations" music program for special students in Great Falls. He is a charter member of Montana's Alliance for Arts Education and a panelist for the National Endowment for the Arts in music and arts education. He has served as a member of the Great Falls Symphony Board, the Great Falls Symphony String Quartet Committee, and the Bozeman Symphony Board.
